Save both files before you begin filling out the Scholarship Application. (If you do not, the information you insert may not save properly.)

Name your Scholarship Application file as: "your first name-last name-scholarship"
For example: "John-Doe-Scholarship"

2. Fill out the Scholarship Application form by typing directly into each line of the form.
3. After double checking that you have provided all the requested information, save the Scholarship Application Form before going on to the next step.

4. Exploring your Mayflower ancestry.

Part 1. Write a letter from one of your Mayflower ancestors to his or her family as if they were in England or Holland. In your letter, describe your ancestor's experience as a member of the colony and discuss the way the Mayflower Compact affected the life of your Mayflower ancestor in Plymouth Colony.

To prepare for writing your letter, find out what is known about your Mayflower ancestor at <http://www.mayflowerhistory.com/mayflower-passenger-list/> and read the Mayflower Compact and study its significance at <http://www.landofthebrave.info/mayflower-compact.htm>

Write the letter in your own words.

If you choose to use any text from these sources or from of any other external sources use quotation marks, credit your source and quote nothing longer than one sentence.

Part 2. Write a personal essay of no more than 500 words that describes how exploring the experience of your Mayflower ancestor and studying the Mayflower Compact have influenced your own personal values and your future plans.

Use 14 pt Times New Roman type for your letter and essay.

5. After you have completed and proofread your letter and essay, copy and paste the letter and the essay under the headings at the bottom of the Application Form. Keep the letter in 14 pt. Times New Roman type.

6. Save and print your Scholarship Application Form, now including your letter to your Mayflower ancestor and your personal essay. You will submit this form both electronically as an email and via the United States Postal Service as part of a mail package.

7. Assemble the other required application materials:

1. Obtain a copy of your high school transcript, including first semester senior year grades, your GPA and your class rank if that is available.
2. Ask one of your teachers who knows your academic work well to write a letter of recommendation for you. Have them give you their letter in a sealed envelope which they have signed across the seal. Make sure they know they must get their recommendation to you by March 1,
3. Ask a person who is not a family member who knows you well to write a character reference letter for you. Have them give you their letter in a sealed envelope which they have signed across the seal. Make sure they know they must get their reference to you by March 1, 2023.
