Please attach color photographs of yourself in your period-correct attire and accessories showing front, back, and side views. Be sure to include photos of creative details that should be showcased. Photos should be clear and in focus. If your period-correct costume is custom made, please include fabric swatches, if available. Special note: photos may be provided to the float builder and the Tournament of Roses® so make it as impressive as possible!

Please provide a brief but thorough description of the components of your period-correct attire: materials used, construction methods, and any patterns used. State if you made your own costume. If purchased ready-made, provide the supplier and product code.

Deadline to Apply: July 31, 2019

Return your completed form, photos and description to camayflower2020@gmail.com

Participants are subject to approval by the Tournament of Roses® and Fiesta Parade Floats.
Approved participants will be notified by September 30, 2019 and will be subject to a background check.
